USA Classic Car Show. Entries included beautifully restored classic cars and trucks, plus a very large Radio Flyer wagon! Our judges for the event were the newly crowned St. Johns Mint Queen Megan Ruestman and her court (first runner up April Kolp, second runner up Anne Brock, Junior Miss Mint Olivia Bouck and Little Miss Mint Aariyanne Koernke). Placements were awarded to Jim Iler for third place, Greg Forbs for second place and Dan Ball won first place. Mint Festival Grand Marshall Andy Todosciuk of Andy T's Farm Market was also on hand to help congratulate the winners.

Our Mint Festival "after hours" party continued under the big top down on the train depot lawn, with live music from the Mike Shafley Band, casino gaming and ice cold beer and Mint Mojitos in the Downtown on Tap beverage tent. Our attendance figures show that more than 1,000 people enjoyed the two day celebration on Friday and Saturday nights, and it appears that everyone had a Mint of a good time!
